

The Covina Chamber of Commerce is supported by membership investments, a special Covina Chamber of Commerce Chairman's' Club, program user fees, and fundraising events. The Chamber funds its own activities to maintain the independence necessary to fully and effectively represent the business community.

The Chamber's Board of Directors is led by an executive committee consisting of a Chairman of the Board, Chairman Elect, Chief Financial Officer/Secretary, Immediate Past Chairman & remaining committee members. The executive committee meets the third Wednesday of each month. The Chamber is always looking for new ways to promote the local business community and provide resources for local business. Always looking forward, the Covina Chamber of Commerce will continue to be the voice of the Business Community.
